

PARTNERSHIPS WITH BUSINESSES, OTHER SCHOOL DISTRICTS, AND OZAUKEE YOUTH APPRENTICESHIP CONSORTIUM

- I. The Board of Education recognizes the importance of establishing mutually beneficial relationships with manufacturers, businesses and other School Districts.
- II. The Board also recognizes the value of these partnerships in providing the education and training students will need to develop successful careers.
- III. The Board will support partnerships between the District and individual businesses and/or school districts. The purpose will be to share resources and new strategies and technologies between the school, students, and the business world. Such partnerships can have significant impacts on the nature and content of the curriculum and the manner and timeline under which students learn.
- IV. The Board also supports the promotion of programs that will increase participation in school-to-work experiences, such as those established through Wisconsin Workforce Development, Ozaukee Economic Development, and the Ozaukee Youth Apprenticeship consortium program (formerly Workforce 2020).
